The Design
"Sing Girl Sing"

If I could split myself in two
I would be perfect for you
If I could split myself in two
I would be perfect for you
But I'm not ready to break
And this is more than I can take

If I could split myself in two
I would be perfect for you
If I could split myself in two
I would be perfect for you
But I'm not ready to break
And this is more than I can take

If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me

Happiness is something you fight for
And your love is something I'd die for
Over and over, you're forcing me down to the floor
But you've taken all I've got
And I can't give you anymore

If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
Maybe I
Maybe I
Maybe I'd be happy

If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
That would be enough for me
If you would say to me
Sing, girl, sing
