

The Devoted Few "Sleep Less"

Visit "Sleep Less" on MotoLyrics.com is it dark in your room at 3am you can't sleep again tonight so you write me a letter with a pen that has no ink you weren't gonna send it anyway and the clock in the kitchen sounds amplified every second is a gun shot as the cicadas scream your losing your mind this is the fifth night in a row in a row

so you've grown immune to sleeping pills somnambulistic sighs and you think so much your brain gives in soft blue t.v helps you to numb it and time rolls over you just like a ghost and all you think makes no sense at all and the moon plays tricks on you to get you to come out side tonight
just for tonight

for tonight
