My head's on the rack
Don't know if I can
Look into the light
'Cause it's black and it's white
It touches like a tidal wave
It hits like a hurricane
And my head is ringing
And my head is spinning

Don't want to go back
Don't know if I can
Got a full blown yellow attack
Got a big black bird on my back

I can hear your voice in my head

If my amiable soul fucks up any more
Then I'll sentence myself
And that goes for me aswell

I can hear your voice in my head

My head's on the rack
Don't know if I can
Look into the light
'Cause it's black and it's white
It touches like a tidal wave
It hits like a drinking game
And my head is ringing
And my head is spinning

Don't want to go back
Don't know if I can
Got a full blown yellow attack
Got a big black bird on my back

I can hear your voice in my head
