Church bells may ring
And surely darling the angels will sing
I'll tell you darling you're the queen of my throne
You should have known, sweetheart, sweetheart

Church bells may ring
Then surely darling the angels will sing
I'll tell you, darling you're the queen of my throne
You should have known, sweetheart, ring them bells

Oh ling a ling a ling a ling a ling ding dong
I love you darling and I want you for my own
I'll give you any, anything that I own
You should have known sweetheart

Hello, hello again, my friends
I hope that we will meet again
Ling a ling a ling ling a ling a ling

Oh ling a ling a ling ding dong
I love you, darling, and I want you for my own
I'll give you any, anything that I own
You should have known sweetheart, ring them bells

Hello, hello again, my friends
I hope that we will meet again

Oh ling a ling a ling ding dong
I love you, darling, and I want you for my own
I'll give you any, anything that I own
You should have known sweetheart
