I couldn't wait for an accident
Built my own and held on tight
Every time you lower me down
I drift away, chase that high

My lonely nights, are all I know

Taking all I can find
Filling space, killing time
I'm home again

Bending shapes, x-ray light
Pouring in, I feel like
I'm whole again

My lonely nights, all i know
This tired life's all my own

Taking all I can find
(Swallowed a lot of blood)
Filling space, killing time
(I don't feel so thick)
I'm home again

Bending shapes, x-ray light
(Swallowed a lot of blood)
Pouring in makes me feel like
(I don't feel so thick)
I'm whole again
