This morning I could barely breathe
Some regret and some relief
I cast away to ease the pain
But it's all in vain

Now we're all afraid to go
Into the blue
I swore I'd find a place
Good enough for you

(This morning I could barely breathe)
Sail against the wind
(Some regret and some relief)
Until we find an end
(The more I move the less I find)
Tell the crew below
(She is on my mind)
We're never going home

Now we're all afraid to go
Into the blue
Soon you'll come to see
Why I had to leave

Now we're all afraid to go
Into the blue
I swore I'd find a place
Good enough for you

Over the years we found there's nothing left to claim
We knew that life on land would never be the same

Tell the crew below
We're never going home
