"No Tomorrow"

I walk around in a state of confusion
I wonder if it's worth being human
Nobody listen when I start to speak
I'm so young but my future looks bleak
Too many lonely nights

Too many lonely nights
Too many lonely nights for me

No tomorrow, no tomorrow
No tomorrow
No tomorrow for this lonely boy

I can't forget the sting of rejection
Life has turned a hopeless direction

The kids at school keep putting me down
They've made their point I won't stay around

Too many lonely nights
Too many lonely nights
Too many lonely nights for me
No tomorrow, no tomorrow
No tomorrow

No tomorrow for this lonely boy

No tomorrow, no tomorrow
No tomorrow, no tomorrow
