"Great Divide"

Keep on looking, find a way out

Get a hold on hoping, scream and shout

A new addiction, another show

Truth and fiction, well I did not know

Chorus

I didn't know you and you didn't know me

Broken branches and a family tree

Blown over this wind is wide

A lone loner's, and our great divide

Running forward, warning signs

Looking backward at the yellow lines

All the great suggestions and the horoscope

Stubborn lessons, and we could not cope

Chorus

And I know it's not forever

This time it's not the same

Why can't we live together

And share more than a name

In the name of friendship and the mask of love

Careful not to trip on the kid gloves

Or the cooking apron, and the wedding gown

Fabric so thin that it ties us down

Chorus
