I put my fingers in my pockets
Emptiness like a time gone by Pure emotion turned to rock, it only makes me wonder why
It makes me wonder why
We forgot what we liked about each other

I see a face, lost in the mirror
Reflection of a love well done
Out of the kettle and into the fire
Burning hot we forgot what we had won
How did we lose what we had won?
We forgot what we liked about each other
How did we lose what we liked about each other?

It felt like this wouldn't be like something I used to know
I dealt with this long ago with someone I used to know
It's not the way we want it to be,
Who could see we would smother?
A million miles and a million dreams
Forgotten like things we liked about each other

My eyes are frozen 'gainst the window
Looking for a feeling that somehow got away
You love to say things aren't the same
We only have each other to blame
Who's to blame when things aren't the same?
We forgot that we thought about each other

Now you're someone I used to know
It's not the way we thought it would be Broken trust won't recover
A million miles and a million dreams
Forgotten like things we liked about each other

How could we forget what we once liked about each other?
How did we lose what we liked about each other?
