Listen for a change - Listen to the winds of change
Hear the voice crying in the wilderness
Calling to a world in fear
Listen for a change - Face the coming change
You're holding back the hands of time
When words can't get past your ears

But I can tell you anything you want to hear
Or I could sell you, or I could play upon your fear
But I want to change for nothing stays the same
We could go on like this forever
Or we can change it now while we can and face the weather

Listen for a change - Don't be afraid to change
I thought I found what I was looking for Now I'm wondering why I'm here

But I can tell you anything you want to hear
Or I could sell you and tell you I'll make it disappear
But I need a change I don't want to stay the same
Cause we could go on like this forever
Or we can change it, rearrange it, make it better

Time waits for no one, but I need time to think things through
My work is my faith in you who makes my dreams come true
Oh hear me
God, I love you

Time waits for no one Let go of your fear

Listen for a change - Listen to the winds of change
I'm looking for the answers to the questions offal my years
Listen for a change - Don't be afraid to change
When you open your mind to the change of time
You'll be wise beyond your years
Listen for a change Face the coming change
For time waits for no one
