Too much time has got me thinking
Thinking so much I'm drinking
Drinking so much I can't stand up
I can't stand up to the sinking

Sinking into nowhere
Nowhere into no one
No one til I find someone
Someone to take up my time

Too much time has got me wishing
Wishing has got me fishing
I'm fishing for some kind of clue
Some kind of clue to what's missing

Missing comes from wanting
Wanting can be pain
Pain until I find someone
Someone to take up my time
Someone to make up my mind
Someone to take up my time
