"We Were Alone"

Somebody's watching everything we do,
They even listen on the telephone.
Can't do anything without a trace,
Buy and sell and give yourself away.
But I remember how it used to be
We found a way to set us free.

We were alone just you and me,
We were alone no one could see,
We were alone and we found a way to escape,
We didn't care what people said when we were alone.

And now we face a bitter irony,
We lock the door before we're free
And in the evening when we both come home,
We just can't wait to be alone.

We were alone just you and me,
We were alone no one could see,
We were alone and we found a way to escape,
We didn't care what people said when we were alone.
We were all alone.

We were alone just you and me,
We were alone in a private fantasy
We could be who we wanted to be
When we were alone
