(Oooooo....)

It's been a long time
Since you crossed my mind
But I know your here to stay
It could have been a color
Of something up there that made your memory come my way

We can hit the lights
Stand to move on with our lives
Take it back
I can let you go
Came to tell you no more games
I have to say. Never got over you

Never got over you

The way it used to be
With a love so free
We're in love and we knew it
It was the very first time for your heart and mine
To be in love and we blew it

We can hit the lights
Stand to move on with our lives
Take it back
I can let you go
Came to tell you no more games
I have to say. Never got over you

I'm standing in front of you and now saying it's our last goodbye.
Somehow it breaks my heart to say we're through.
I can't complain for all these years and though my heartache would be you

We can have our love
Stand to move on with our lives
Take it back
I can let you go

Came to tell you no more games
I have to say. Never got over you
