One life to live so Ima live it
One chance to give so Ima give it
All that I have with no limit
We made it this far but it's only the beginning
Got my eyes set strictly on the prizes
Standing in my own two shoes my whole life is Easier said than done but I survived it
Aim for the stars dream big and don't hide it
I got my head up in the clouds now
I'm so high I'm never coming down
I like living up here, watching life from the sky
Everything becomes clear and as the mist rises
I can see horizons a new day has dawned
I'm just happy to be alive Ima make it to the top if not I'll die trying If I'm lyin' watch my nose grow, Barbara Streisand .
I got my head up in the clouds now
I'm so high I'm never coming down
I like living up here, watching life from the sky
everything becomes clear

When life is boring
Write your own story
In skies you're soaring
When life is surreal
Put on your disguise
And just live in the sky
Just live in the sky

I've seen things I just can't explain
I've seen the fire and I've seen the rain
I've been places, and asked questions
But was told that my answers were blown in the wind
So now I followed the purple haze
All the way through the everglades
I broke on through to the other side
Just to find myself building castles in the sky
And as I rise up I can see reality below me Floating on a dream through the house of the holy Hands clinched tight praying death come slowly
Cause life's too short to give up what you're holding

Got my head up in the clouds now
I'm so high I'm never coming down
I like living up here, watching life from the sky
everything becomes clear

When life is boring
Write your own story
In skies you're soaring
When life is surreal
Put on your disguise
And just live in the sky
