I need some Valium, Zanax, Percaset, Darvaset
Vicodin, Calaudapin, sleeping pills and Niquil
I can't sleep yo, and it's driving me mad
It's like my eyelids are glued to the top of my forehead

I lie in bed with my eyes wide open
But Duddy don't you worry you'll be sleeping in a moment
Then moments turn minutes and minutes turn to hours
Then hours turn to long ass nights and cold showers

It's four in the morning still wide awake
Let's see how many bong tokes Duddy B can take
I already drank all the alcohol left in my house
Now I sit here wide awake with a dry fucking mouth

And I just think of all the things on my mind
And then I let um roll around about a million times
Until it's got me you it grabs a hold of me, baby
It's insomnia kids you know it's driven me crazy

So turn out the lights lie my head down
I lie my head down, I close my eyes
Now all I do, girl, is lie here
I think I'll die here insomnia

Push my face in the pillow
To asphyxiate the sound
I'd cry my self to sleep but I'm too scared
That I might drowned

I'm calling for the sandman
But I don't think he's in town
'Cause all these sleepless nights
Have running thoughts have got me down

I think I got a sudden case of narcolepsy maybe
Call up Duddy B so we can smoke the best weed
And give me something nice so it can calm my chest peace
And talk about these things that we really don't need

Now as I lay in bed in my head I'm running circles
Stuck in the land of low light and infomercials
It's insomnia kids you know its drivin' me crazy
Only thing that can save me is an overdose maybe

Turn out the lights lie my head down
I lie my head down, I close my eyes
Now all I do, girl, is lie here
I think I'll die here insomnia

Fallen, fallen, trying to fall asleep
Fallen, fallen but my eyes are just too weak
Fallen, fallen, trying to fall asleep
Fallen, fallen but my eyes are just too weak

Turn out the lights lie my head down
I lie my head down, I close my eyes
Now all I do, girl, is lie here
I think I'll die here insomnia
