she's my inspiration
my part time occupation the catalyst and my consumption in my quest for education no one could ever take her place and no assimilation, so save you false accusations i accept no imitations

so that's the situation without further hesitation let me continue my demonstration for the congregation to break it down for all y'all simple and plain i got a love for a girl named mary jane

chorus:

whatcha know about mary jane?
how ya'll feel about mary jane ya'll don't know about mary jane
'cause she's my main thing whatcha know about mary jane?

she makes my heart sing as i walk around the edges of my mind in an attempt to contemplate what it really is that makes me tick i'm reminded of emotions that saturate my thoughts like sunshine it always ain't the first time that i'm feelin' this, feelin that i'm feelin' that they don't know about my baby and the healing power it makes a strong man stronger and a crazy man sing i'm talkin about mary jane mary's potent, see, yes it opens me and makes me see things in a way i'd never thought i'd see mary ease pain

and mary never complains mary jane penetrates the brain y'know what i'm sayin'

i'm not the first and i probably won't be the last i ain't mad at mary 'cause mary always makes me laugh mary brings light to the darkness let me spark one up quickly before they come and get me don't listen to what they say 'cause mary never contrary mary mary very nececessary extraordinary me and mary to the mortuary just one kiss on her sweet lips and i become a visionary mary never the same

mary don't change
mary make a man walk a mile in the rain mary mary never temporary she's my sanctuary
and when the love comes down i'm the beneficiary

some say if it's this good then it must be wrong but mary makes me feel so good 'cause mary lasts so long mary mary got no secondary sweeter than a cherry blackberry, or a strawberry without mary, life ain't complete 'cause mary don't lie, mary don't steal and mary don't cheat let me break it down for all y'all simple and plain i've got a love for a girl named mary jane

i'm in love with with mary jane i'm not the only one mary likes to play around i let her have her fun

she's not the kind of girl that you can just tie down mary likes to spread her love and turn my head around i'm in love with mary jane she's my main thing

she makes me feel alright makes my heart sing

and when i'm feelin' low it comes as no surprise turns me on with her love takes me to paradise

do you love me, mary jane?
