From where I stood you looked so good
From where I stood you looked so good good

I met my match tonight
I know I gotta show you
I made my catch tonight
I got a pitch to throw you

From where I stood you looked so good
From where I stood you looked so good good

It's like my first tonight
I like your legs so much
I've got a thirst tonight
To quench it to quench it with your touch

From where I stood you looked so good
From where I stood you looked so good good

This place is dark and I don't care
I know you by the clothes you wear

From where I stood you looked so good
From where I stood you looked so good good
