Close your eyes and see
A world deep inside
There is nothing left for us to believe
We know what we want but it's not for free
This I know is true
My hunger is for you
Only you

Pleasure, pain have found us once again
Shining light on deviance and shame
Falling from the pure to the profane Twisted passions leading the insane
Close your eyes and see
A world deep inside
There is nothing left for us to believe
We know what we want but it's not for free
This I know is true
My hunger is for you
Only you

We could wander Through the garden of soft delights

Taste desire with no thought to wrong or right

I could touch you I could bring you to the night

Under starlight our bodies feel so full and ripe

Oh, this is all we wanted Oh, this is all we wanted

Close your eyes and see
A world deep inside
There is nothing left for us to believe
We know what we want but it's not for free
This I know is true My hunger is for you
Only you
