You must watch it
It might hurt next time coming up here
We stopped running

Got used to stand by
Couldn't see the use of getting dirt in my eyes
I stopped hiding

There's no sunshine
Nothing's playing on the radio
But I stopped lying

What we endure
What we endured

You don't turn around
You lean on it until it falls down
We stopped running

And it's a crying shame
What we're up against not playing the game
We stopped hiding
