Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena
I know that they're saying about you
Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena

They all say it's a resistance, they all say that ya didn't listen
Well, they all have scars on their eyes, it's true
Night and day it's like a haunted replay, I know it girl,
I'll pray for you
Just remember it's not stronger than you

Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena
I know that they're saying about you
Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena
I know that they're saying about you
Tasted dead, but I'll shed the night
Night irreverental not the time, yeah, carneleby is a bit of you
Time to feel it, time to fix it, time to lure it
Oh, time to miss it, time to lure this stone cold weather
Time alone and time away I know, yeah, what they say about you

Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena
I know the pain inside you
Oh Serena, oh Serena, oh Serena
I know what they're saying about you, it's not true
