I been feeling a little lonely round the edges
I been locking my door a little earlier at night
The phone don't ring at all I pulled it off the wall
When you called to say goodbye

Chorus:

I got a picture of you with your hair fallin down it makes me cry I don't know why I keep it around
All I got to hold is this old black and white souvenir
One picture worth a thousands tears

Well I tried to keep it face down on the table
Cause your eyes were stearing straight into my soul
I even tried one day to throw the thing away
But I just could not let go

Chorus ggr 2

It's all I got to show after all this years
One picture worth a thousand tears
