I want to see you crawl
I want to see you fall out of a window, mine
My sweetie pie

I want you to get run down by a car, my car
I want to see you bleed
My darling, angel

I'm going to make it true, the thoughts I've given you
One day it'll stand in front of me coincidentally

The coffee is red hot, the knife is really sharp
I've got a pillow, my own
My sweetie pie

I've got a bathtub and a hairdryer as well!

I'm going to make it true, the thoughts I've given you
One day it'll stand in front of me coincidentally

Lalalalala
