there's one thing on my mind
and that thing is you.
there isn't any other i can give attention to
i just ate but i'm hungry again
cos i'm missing you for days on end.

true that you don't know me well.
you're always on the go
but i fill you up with all my love the cups tend to overflow.

well guess who! is on my mind.
that's you! all the time
that makes me feel this rush.
that's why you're my obsessive crush.

oh tell me now its hopeless as i think.
if the answer's "no"
you'll feel the glow
as my cheeks are turning pink.

you charmed your way into my brain
and it made me feel unique.
i wish i made you feel the same
but it isn't me you seek.
well now i catch your drift.
you're drifting with any joe from off the street.

well there's one thing on my mind
that's so contagious. can't stop rewind.
i just ate but i'm hungry again
cos i'm missing you for days on end.
well guess who! is on my mind.
that's you! all the time
that makes me feel this rush.
