Oo I saw stars falling all around her head
Red gold and blue
Sherry Fraser where are you
'Cause I saw stars falling
all around your head
When we were young
Sherry Fraser where have you gone
We're all wondering
When will you come back
And play...some day.
Sherry yeah
The mad hatter he waits for Alice
To come to tea again
He waits forever for his old lover
And always wonderin'
Will I see stars falling all around your head
When you return
Sherry Fraser what have you learned
And we're all wondering
When will you come back

And play...some day

And please do come back

And play...some day

Please do come back

And play...some day

Sherry yeah
