I've been looking everywhere
Holding out for you out there
And like an arrow through my heart
Here you are
I've had some lovers in my years
A love has its own ideas
I got a history hangin' 'round
Means nothing now
I feel your breath
On my lips when I close my eyes
I feel your skin
On my skin [Incomprehensible]
It's a warmth deep inside
It's a touch that never lies
It's a home to the soul going on
I feel your breath
On my lips when I close my eyes
I feel your skin
On my skin [Incomprehensible], ooh
I've been looking everywhere
Holding out for you out there
And like an arrow through my heart
Here you are
