Lyrics included by Dan H.

There could never be another boy like mine
There could never be another love so fine

Equal understanding
Never catch him handing me a line
'Cause he's not that kind

There could never be another boy like mine
I'll be calling him my baby 'till the end of time

Every time I see him
I just want to hold him close to me
And kiss him tenderly that little boy of mine

There could never be another boy like mine
Don't you know he sends those chills up and down my spine

There could never be another love so true
Yes he means he [1:27] when he whispers "I Love You"

There could never be another boy like mine
There could never be another love so fine

I could search forever
But you know I never ever find
Another boy so kind
Another boy like mine

I could search forever
But I know I never ever find
Another boy so kind
Another boy like mine

Another boy like mine
Another boy like mine
Another boy like mine
Another boy like mine
