I could wait for you
And you could wait for me now this I know.
And I recall a time, when every plan we had was mine
and yours.

And some day when we're older, but not for now,
Cause here's the time I get down on my knee'sâ€¦

And if you go
I will only be thinking about you.
And if you stay,
You'll be breaking me down even more.
Yeah now and if you love,
Please don't tell me the part, your loving somebody else.
Cause I believe that I'm still yours, and baby you are mine.

And I may see you there,
And I may not know, and you may not know me
(I still think I do)
But one thing I am sure of,
Is that I'll want you and you'll still be wanting me

And some day when we're older, but not for now,
Cause here's the time I get down on my knee'sâ€¦

And if you goâ€¦
