Don't you wonder how, you have to choose
Between two of the roads, two of the Roads you've foundâ€¦
Twist and turning you, you're with someone you
Thought you'd known before, but the fear
Inside still movesâ€¦

There's something in their eyes, just to let it
Rain down, just let the feeling fallâ€¦let it talk to you.

Caught with every breath, and every second holds
An image of you, that replays inside my head,
Doubt inside my mind, but should I really have
To fight to feel, that your future is here with mine?

The touch that's in your hands, would you let
It rain down over them? Your bodies held
In time, for the night.

Don't you dare be touching her, you should be
Here with me, if you're giving part of you,
Don't take from meâ€¦

Just let it rain down, something without Warning caught my eye, that I need you right
By my side, and if I ever loose you baby I'll be Wrongâ€¦ Just let it rain down, the truth that's In your hands is part of me, and I am part of
You, you'll seeâ€¦ Just let it rain over youâ€¦
Let it talk to you.
