Sometimes I can't see past a day
I know I'm growin' tired and I feel it, yeah
And the song that I sing when the notes begin to ring
It's hard for my head to get into the melody, yeah

Day to day, I tell ya
Day by day
I see faces all around me
When they start to smile
I just stop for a while
And I say baby let me love you

A small town store, with an old wooden floor
The old man inside sellin' dry goods
Has a smile on his face
Don't you know that's hard to replace?
I bet he's gonna live to be a hundred, yeah

Day to day, I tell you
Day by day
I see faces all around me
When they start to smile
I just stop for a while
And I say baby let me love you

Summer is hot and the winter is cold
People all doin' just what they're told
It's too bad, it's too sad
Thinkin' for yourself is a hard thing to do
Well, don't you know they're dependin' on you
See them through, yeah
See them through
It's the only thing you can do
You know you got to see them through

Shinin' my light, like a candle so bright
Show me the way to my future, yeah
With your hand on my face
Take me far from this place
Honey, I'll be the key to your heavenly door

Hear me, baby, calling to you now

Don't you know now baby, well, they're countin' on you
See me, baby, reachin' for you
Reachin' out for you, baby
Don't you see me reachin' out for you?
Hear me, baby, hear me callin' to you
Don't you know, baby, that I'm countin' on you
To see me through
Hear me, baby, oh hear me callin' to you
Ohh hear me baby buy you
Don't you see me reachin' out for you?
Don't you know I need you baby?

Hear me, baby, can't you hear it
Callin' out for your name
See my baby
Reachin' out for you, reachin' out for you
Gotta get to you, near you my my
Hear me baby, callin' your name
Don't you know that I'm countin' on you
To see me through yeah
Hear me, baby, baby, callin' to you now now
Hear me baby, countin' on you to see me through yeah
Reachin' for you, oh I'm reachin for you baby
Gotta reach for you now
'Cause I gotta see you now
