Don't look back till you realize there's a lot still left to lose
I saw a picture of the devil, in the shade,
And there's a lot still left to see.
It's a restless night and I just want you to say you'll come with me

Cause I can't stand feeling paralyzed
And I can't wait for a break Cause everytime that I find myself alone
It's always there waiting for me.
It's a restless night and I just want you to say you'll
come with me...
I need an escape, so lock the doors and we'll get away

Give me a place to go
Somewhere I don't know
Give me a place to go
Cause anywhere is better
Any place is, if you'll come with me
