I just wanna run, hide it away
Run because they're chasing me down
I just wanna run, throw it away
Run before they're finding me out
I just wanna run

I just wanna run
I'm out here all alone
I try to call your house
Can't reach you on the phone
I'll gather up the nerve
I'm packing up my bag
It's more than you deserve
Don't treat me like a drag

I'm feelin like I keep on talking
I'm repeating
Myself, my words
lost all meaning
I keep talking
I repeat myself

I just wanna run, hide it away
Run because they're chasing me down
I just wanna run, throw it away
Run before they're finding me out
I just wanna run.....I just wanna run

Like a game of chess
I predict your move
I think I know you better
Better than you do
I'm sick of feeling cheap
Cheated and abused
Sick of losing sleep
Thinking about you

I'm feelin like I keep on talking
I'm repeating
Myself, my words
lost all meaning
I keep talking

I repeat myself

I just wanna run, hide it away
Run because they're chasing me down
I just wanna run, throw it away
Run before they're finding me out
I just wanna run
I just wanna run
Throw it away....

I just wanna run, hide it away
Run because they're chasing me down
Run before they're finding me out (out)

(I just wanna run)

I just wanna run, hide it away
Run because they're chasing me down
I just wanna run, throw it away
I just wanna run
(HEY x8)

I just wanna run

I just wanna run

I just wanna run, hide it away
