Song by Soul Asylum

Go ahead, spit it out, I can take it,
Don't do this don't do that, try and fake it,
I, I, I have seen it all
Tell me there's something wrong, make me see it,
How i try i must be wrong, it must be me
I, I, I have been wrong before
And I confess, that I am having a hard time
And I confess, that your hard time's harder than mine
When its over, when its over, I'm coming over,
Use your shoulder, soon be over
But I'm losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin'
it
Suck it up rip it out, still i'm learnin'
Light it up put it out, keep it burnin'
I, I, I've been burned before
Come on out I know you can make me happy
Little smile just ahead, make it happen
I, I, I have smiled before
And I confess, that I am having a hard time
And I confess, that your hard time's harder than mine
When its over, when its over, I'm coming over,
Use your shoulder, soon be over
But I'm losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, losin'
it
I'm losin' it, losin' it, losin' it, loose it, loose it, losin' it
I am having a hard time
