their questions concerns that I'll never learn you all left here too fast and I'd never look past this divine sight of seeing your eyes she'll keep watching you sally she'll wait 6 months so gladly they just wanted this to be inside
this is
a beautiful lie
that pulls you aside
and whispers all that we tried hard to hide tonight we'll be sitting so high that no morning deadline could expire our grand time its getting so cold that she wonders why fall whisked you so away I can't point out exactly if your thumb is pushing the right way he'll keep watching you sally she'll wait 6 months so gladly
special
this is
a beautiful lie
and whispers
all that we tried hard to hide
tonight we'll be sitting so high
a kaliedoscope of changing hues a lighter room that we can use and if I said I knew it all then tape this conversation to your wall onto your wall this is a beautiful lie that pulls you aside and whispers
all that we tried hard to hide
