Its just so me to air our bad news
Whats past has passed
Plus youve changed your tune
It feels so good to sing something new Ive exhausted every word on you Now well i found you and you found me Its just so perfect and perfect to see To see how simple this can be About as basic as 1..2
its just so me to air our bad news
Whats past has passed
Plus youve changed your tune
It feels so good to sing something new
Ive exhausted every word on you
Id hate for this to not stay golden
For just right now please rip me open
Ive dropped my guard im taking chances Fingers crossed i wont regret this now ill go wherever you go follow me and we will know if this is only in passing Or something worthy of lasting i don't Dont want to know Answers to anything oh no Ive got both ears to the ground if only to not hear a sound
Its just so me to air our bad news
whats past has passed
Plus youve changed your tune
It feels so good to sing something new Ive exhausted every word on you id hate for this to not stay golden
For just right now please rip me open
ive dropped my guard im taking chances
Fingers crossed i wont regret this now
What makes you tick?
Dont mind my ways
I could hold your interest for about a day i have had about more of this than i can take ill never let you see me sweat cause it would be giving too much away Ill only let you read my lips

When i say get close before this is too late
Its just so me to air our bad news
whats past has passed
Plus youve changed your tune
It feels so good to sing something new Ive exhausted every word on you
id hate for this to not stay golden
For just right now please rip me open
Fingers crossed i wont regret this now
