[J. Cole]

One time for the Plan straight to the top I got the power in my hands yeah, live for the moment be high act like you wanna reach high know we aint on but we try now holla back and reply

[Verse 1]

I feel like I live for this moment see it in their eyes the other guys don't want it my style they can crown but can't dethrone it I was aiming for the top and now I-I'm on it what a powerful performance I was in my zone send flowers for opponents tell em get well soon cause I aint in the mood so if you read that word backwards it should spell doom I'm on fire y'all can inhale fumes as I zoom by ya as ya thinking who's higher fueled by a desire you should admire that's why I'm what they aspire to be before they retire a livin' legend with God given blessings and game so cold they probably watching this in heaven expectin' the incredible so baby what me do that and make the angels say Lord how he do that

[Verse 2]

A champions mentality and so I'm scoring ignoring the fact you fouling me And 1 where I go you can't come I was schooling your father boy that make you my grandson uh, I been around the block twice though my shot nice no referee but best believe out here I got stripes now that they finally consider me a legit scorer would u believe I started off as a benchwarmer had me feeling like master splinter now the heads and commentators say thats a winner hey, hard work pay off nah i dont take a day off, I rest not i guess thats why ur best short way off these are the things that dreams are made of it's sweet, no time for sleep when you're elite if what you reap is what you sow then wat was u expecting expect to come in secound while I become a legend

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

why dont you reach for the sky ooh, you dont believe you could fly i guess i see you when you get in, i guess i see you when you get in (la la la la la la)

[Chorus]
