[Verse 1]

Aye nigga I'm the best man, as if my best friend was getting married,
Even with my eye closed I'm something like a visionary,
Paint you a perfect picture nigga this is picturnary,
Man they goin have to put my picture in the dictionary, Right next to real then put your picture right next to fictionary,
Claimin that you tril but you want bitches all you nigga scared,
Dont try to hide from it, oh boy we see you,
Claim you goin ride, oh no we don't believe you,
Help wanted, classified you need more people,
Hating mine, I'm greater sign, hey we are no equal,
My life is like a movie you like 3 or 4 previews,
This the city where they like to see your soul leave you,
You're body laid back like Nayo so evil,
Cold world baby 3 below zero,
Getcha life snatched and your vechial, no repo
