this started out as a strange situation so i'm debatin they gonna say somethin or just say nathin but see me, i'ma g, and imma just keep it pimpin and plus my momma told me, don't be chasin them women i tried to listen but you caught my attention from across the room i see sparks fly, light as a thicken like some kind of addiction shorty we about to get missin becuz we bout to go and get up on this mission bridge:

baby girl, it just seems, that this scene is just wrong-what i mean, you're a queen you should be just with me in belise or in aspen on ski's cuz your beauty's untamed its your grace magazines and i all i need is a week of attention a private affair, like we on a mission, i swear once we're there, girl i'll ease all your tension, work is suspended, lets fly

Chorus:

you need a holiday
a week we can take the rest off hit the port and take a jet off on your holiday hit the room and remove your dress girl, let me remove your stress
you need a holiday
and we ain't gotta come back no time soon, girl when i'm with you

on your holiday
just relax and you can see when you sit back and roll with me

Verse 2:

i won't lie, we can fly, we can drive, we can do whatever you wanna do but baby you gotta pick a plane pick a ? pick a ride cuz if you want we can look fly in the coupe
