You're like a child and I like that You're always sleeping on my doorstep
And you're such a pretty thing, and I like that You're like a child and I like that
You're always wishing me so close to death
And it's such a stupid thing, but I like that

But you torture me and you ruin me

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you

That night you put your lipstick on me
I felt stupid so I drank to get dizzy
And when you fell asleep I threw a tambourine at your face
And of course I missed
Cause I always miss
Yeah I always Miss
Yeah I always miss

But you torture me and you ruin me

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you

I feel so glad

I feel so glad
I feel so glad
I feel so glad

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you

I need a doctor
I need a doctor
You know I love you
But I want to kill you
