Oh you can do do do what you want
And go go just where you will
Ã¢â¬âbecause you're alive inside with this lie
And it feels like this

If you want it
Oh you could have it
But you have to be
Honest now
About where you're feeding it from

Well you say say say whatever comes
And it rings so true much later on
Oh you're alive inside with this lie
And it tastes like her milk

If you want it
Oh you could have it
But you have to feed this feeling now
With all the spark of your fire

I like every colour I've ever seen
I won't be brave Ã¢â¬âuntil you are all with me
I won't be

I won't be brave Ã¢â¬âuntil I've seen
Every colour I've never seen and I want to be Braver than you

If you want it
Oh you could have it
But you have to be honest now
About where you're feeding it from

If you want it
Well you could have it
But you have to feed this feeling now
