Always back to the sun
Always back to someone
Always back to the sun
Always back to someone
I'm coming in, I'm coming in
Always back to the sun
Always back to someone
Always back to the sun
Always back to someone
I'm going home, I'm going home

I'm opening up to someone
And I wanna know, but dont know what's to come
You could lead me in
If you're sure you want to see
But I'm going back to someone

Oh I like to feel the sun on my back
And I can't avoid reviewing what's done
Oh I want to know but don't know whats to come
You could lead me in, but I'm always alone

Come to me through noise

I'm going back to the sun
Always back to someone
I'm going back to the sun
Always back to someone
I always feel I'm pulled in by someone
But suppose it's me, and I'm fired by the sun
So I'm catching sight of the sun
And you could join me there
But it's always just me...

Come to me through noise.
