No one can hear you on red weather hill

How's anyone supposed to get to you if you just sit still Get down on your knees like a wild animal licks the floor

Behave just like you should do don't come up to me and ask for more

On and on I'm excited by that noise and I know my bedroom walls are loose but the thing is that not one of you is right still I know if you impress me well I might Girls tie their hair back so you that can't grab them from the woods It's darker than those old stoways that swim back misunderstood

On and on
I'm excited by that noise and I know my bedroom walls they are loose but the thing is that not one of you is right

like a wild animal growls
like a wild animal growls

like a wild animal growls

like a wild animal growls

On and on
Still I know my bedroom walls they are loose young lover
still I know if you impress me yeah well I might

On and on
I'm excited by that noise Yeah I know my bedroom walls they are loose but the thing is that not one of you is right but I know if you impress me well I might your story goes on well and I crawl across the floor
