this for all the ladies man, yeah for all the bitches baby girl was real bad tho man she had ya boy like whoooo bottles of liquor man look how we did it tho check game

I met her last week baby was a superb bad freak callin me late night, she can't sleep tellin me her feelings run deep she in the bath tub wants me to come see (like that) she say she love a nigga company and don't nobody beat it up like me (nobody) I'm like Bruce Lee when I'm in a coochie jabbin, stabbin, lettin her seduce me (yeah) she wants me to have the key I just met the girl recently (I just met her) we was at the mall I was sellin her a cd she gave me her number in a hurry I told her I'ma call don't worry I was like Eddy Murphy
I had the hutch laughin (hahaha) then she walked away all I thought about was passion (damn)
she was laced in the latest fashion with no panty line, so I could only imagine was about to happen, when I hit those it's a trip I just met her about a week ago I really didn't know what the outcome would be but everytime we contact it was so lovely she didn't put nothing above me after havin sex she would backrub me she let a thug be how a nigga wanna be but I got my guards up I'm not a rookie I be goin hard killin on her pussy she be sayin don't fill me like Missy
