Tonight is a story of love
Two broken hearts set by one
All he wants is a sign
Of how she's making her mind
All we ever wanted was

Love and love and happy afternoons
Watchin' TV from your room
While you're layin' in my arms
And I know it's not fair to me
To see this love walk right by me every day,
Will we ever meet the right way?
Again, again

Tonight I will sit next to you
To see if you act like we're through
To make you laugh is all I want
I'll hold you while tears fill our eyes

Love and love and happy afternoons
Watchin' TV from your room
While you're layin' in my arms
And I know it's not fair to me
To see this love walk right by me every day,
Will we ever meet the right way?
(2x)

Again, again
