waste another day
things you'll never say and we'll get by be alright
and fall in love again i don't know why i wait i can't control my fate when i look through i still see you
we're holding hands as we walk out to the street the sun shines on your face i feel your love inside your breath your lips i taste and this is what i feel and you are what is real i guess i'll never be this lucky again tonight
waste another day
you drigt so far away
a mighty shot
i might as well guve upso might ahead i go a place i've always known with all my cares
i sit and stare
i drigt away when you are by myside and all we had was us get away from life the shit that we put up we drive off in the night and kiss the world goodbye you were my only light don't you know i shin tonight lets make this right
don't leace to the night
lets make this right
don't leave tonight
turn around and walk away(x8)
don't leave tonigh
lets mike this right

turn around and walk away(continue till song ends)
