"Dialectic"

Don't you wait for me to tell you
Don't you wait for me to agree
Don't you feign your loyalty
Don't you try to fucking play me

Miasma consuming your mind
Spreading plagues all throughout your soul
Dialectic, master and slave
Recognition you seek in vain

Your deceit overwhelms me
You and I are now enemies
I don't even fucking care how
I will silence your bullshit now

Lying dead my vengeance fulfilled
Taste the cost of treachery
Burning, dying, torn and bleeding
Feel my revenge
