I don't understand what you do,
I don't even know how you live.
You think that I'm better than you,
I think that it's better to give.

You want me to tell you the truth,
You want me to reason and wait my turn.
I haven't the nerve to say no,
I guess I deserve the burn you gave me.

Can't show my eyes, I don't want to know,
I haven't the time to go any slower.
I don't understand how you live

(spoken)

And I don't even care if you're not my brother!

(Sterling)
