"Liar"

Some like slow
Some like it fast
Some like it hot as hell
With a slap on the ass
There are those who can't get enough
Getting higher and higher
If I said that I had enough
I would be a fucking liar
Around every corner
Face to face with myself
Hated everything
No love, nothing to tell
Smashed it to pieces in a day
I'm nothing if I'm not free
Can't fight this anymore
This life is one big relapse
We just take what we want anyway
Till we found love at last
Angels by day
Beasts of the night
You've got everything that I need
I won't deny for myself
What I can have for free
Eyes open to everything
Over the years we've conspired
Things you've seen the songs you'll sing
Will you end up a liar?
