You're coming with me and if you don't agree I'll pull
the trigger
Never want to run I got a gun, you know I'll pull the trigger
If you don't believe in what I believe then you're a sinner
A sinner's gotta pay, so now we're taking your name forever
Don't you make your last mistake
Decide, think fast, your pride, or your ass?
If you wanna take the moral higher ground they're gonna pull the trigger If your country's still got a bank account they're gonna pull the trigger
If you turn around and let your guard down they'll pull
the trigger
But if you wanna hide behind suicide then pull the trigger
Don't you make your last mistake
Decide, think fast, your pride, or your ass?
What do you stand for?
Pain, tell me you want more Slate, clean as its gonna be More blood will be shed, because we are not free
So F the police, the ones that are corrupt Criminals in the White House, tell em get your hands up We gotta take out the World Bank, becuae they're making our laws
Follow the money that talks, because its saying F you all Watch your every step look right look left, You'll see there's nothing left,
Are we just being paranoid,
Or is this world being destroyed?
