Well, I know you need someone
To tell you that he needs you
And I am gonna tell you one thing about yourself, baby

You're also gonna need someone
To keep on tellin' those big fat lies to you
Better find someone with loving to do, baby
Yes, ain't nowhere to go and no dreams to follow

Well, your eyes are just shadow
Tryin' to hide what you really want of me
See I know all about you, baby

Only lookin' to fool someone
To keep your score and pay your way
Better find someone with loving to do, baby
Yes, ain't nowhere to go and no dreams to follow
