Yesterday's gone and tomorrow is almost here and I don't want to leave you here
the candles burned down are melted everywhere what a mess we've made here

I watch her as she sleep silently she dreams
as I run my hands through her hair
I think, how did we come to this I think I found it by the way we kissed should I let go or should I say

where do we go from here
why do I need you near what if I was to say
I never felt this
I never felt this way.

Shes layin in my bed
as the sun kisses her skin I feel the warms deep within I wish tomorrow never came cuz I'll do it all again just the same every day

I think how did we come to this.
I think found it by the way we kissed
should I let go or should I say
where do we go from here?
why do I need you near?
what if I was to say
I never felt this
I never felt this way.

Can I keep holdin on to you or should I let her go and fade away?
Can I keep holdin on to you?
or should let go and fade away?

Yesterday's gone and tomorrow is almost here.

and I don't want to leave you here.

why do I need you near
what if I was to say
I never felt this
I never felt this way.
I never felt this
I never felt this way..
I never felt this
I never felt this way..
